

CLAY SOCIETY.

(Continued from Page 2, Section 2.)

visiting to this city during the week. Anna M. Madsen of Spring City was in the city the last of the week. Rebecca Larson of Spring City was a visitor during the week. Mary E. Eckman of Fountain Green visited in Mantle the past week. Anna E. Christensen of Richfield was in the city during the week. The sixty-second anniversary of the organization of the Relief Society of the North ward of this city will be celebrated Thursday of next week. A good programme will be rendered. Mrs. G. O. Whitbeck of Salt Lake City was a visitor in Mantle the first part of the week. Joseph Whitbeck of Salt Lake City was in Mantle during the week. Mrs. Orson Billings of Nephi visited friends and relatives in Mantle during the week. Fred Smyth of Fountain Green was a visitor in the city during the week. Myrtle Booth of Sterling visited friends in Mantle Saturday last. Bishop Joseph Christensen and wife, of Gunnison, were in Mantle Saturday last. N. E. Noyes of Ephraim was a business visitor during the week. President J. J. Jensen of Ephraim visited in Mantle on business during the week. Bishop Parley Christensen and C. R. Nielsen, of Maxfield, were in the city during the week. Miss Laura Smyth left for Salt Lake City during the week, where she will engage in housework. G. M. Spicer was in Ephraim Monday last on legal business. "Sandy Bottom" is the title of a play that will be put on at our opera house next week. Bishop Martin Jensen of Redmond was a business visitor this week. L. E. Nohrstedt of Provo was in Mantle doing business during the week. "Saturday of this week the Sunday schools of the city held their twentieth anniversary since the organization of the Sunday schools in Mantle. A fitting programme was rendered at the tabernacle in the afternoon and a social was given in the assembly hall in the evening to all former Sunday school officers and teachers. Only a few of the original Sunday school members were present, many having passed away while others have removed to other parts.

delightful time was had by all present, and a sumptuous repast was had in the vestry of the house, at which several toasts were given and responded to. Mrs. May Bell Davis acting as toastmaster. A short play programme was given after the repast, consisting of songs, speeches, etc., by different ones present. A poem by George Moldrair for the occasion on the "Life of Sister Maggie Watson," the president of the society, was read by H. S. Payne, and Mrs. Bennett, who had the matter in charge, presented Mrs. Watson, her cousins, each with a beautiful autograph album as a mark of esteem from those present. Among those present were: Messrs and Mesdames Andrew Watson, James Boyden, H. S. Payne, Oscar Young, Benjamin Bennett, C. H. Davis, Caleb Hays, J. C. Ferrin, John A. Vance, E. D. Partridge, E. H. Smart, James A. Oliver, D. P. Thompson, Robert Ferguson, W. O. Sperry, E. H. Sparks, C. A. Glazier, Orrin Jarvis, Mr. A. L. Booth, John G. Jones, George Medford, D. P. Thomas, Walter Dixon, David Edwards, members of the relief society, Mrs. Marilla Danforth, Mrs. Mary Boyden, and many others. All wished the honored guests a long and happy life.

The Nineteenth Century club of Provo invited to Mrs. A. E. Ewing of Salt Lake City for a very enjoyable afternoon Friday last. The occasion being the reading of a paper on Jane Austin, which the writer (Mrs. Ewing) gives a brief sketch of the author's life and a critical analysis of her works. The paper was read by Mrs. W. B. Seale and is one of the many good things in the possession of the recently formed. Next week Miss McCord will talk to the club on art. A very enjoyable surprise was given by Mrs. Thomas Court at his home in the Third ward Monday evening. About thirty guests were present. A pleasant surprise was given the president of the Fourth ward Tuesday evening by the ladies of the relief society of the ward. It was informed that they were wanted by the bishop at his home in the Third ward and were truly surprised. A

Freeman, Clarie Heurtle, Rose Young, Stewart, Mary Nielson, Mr. A. L. Booth, Lizette Boyden and Miss Ferron. MT. PLEASANT. J. H. Proctor was in Salt Lake City and Murray on business during the earlier days of the week. W. C. Closs left this week for El Paso, Texas, on a business trip. He will be absent several weeks. Frank Madsen is home from Millard county, where he has been all winter. Judge Jacob Johnson was in town this week from his home in Spring City. Mrs. Kate Frisby has returned to Salt Lake City, after an extended visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Snydgaard. The R. H. G.'s were entertained this week by Miss Mabel Johnson. After the regular work of the evening the guests were conducted to the dining room where a fine lunch had been prepared for them. Mrs. Larsen is in Europe. Mrs. Candace Wilcox went to Scofield early in the week to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Nell Madsen. Thomas Moore of Fairview left this week for Idaho, where, if a suitable location is found, he will remain. His family will follow later. Ernest Winkler returned this week to Black Rock, where he has been all winter. Mrs. Rasmussen attended the Indian War veterans' third annual reunion at Moroni Wednesday. John Gardner returned this week from California, where he has spent the past six weeks. William Tidwell returned early in the week to his home in Castle valley after a lengthy visit with relatives in this city. Peter Monson and wife will go to Clear Creek this week, where they will remain indefinitely. Mrs. Mollie Nolan entertained a few friends at dinner Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Anderson entebrated the anniversary of their wedding Thursday by entertaining a number of relatives and friends at dinner. Adolph Metz went to Mantle early in the week for a short stay. Bert and Byron Wheelock are in from Mammoth with their families for a short stay. E. D. Preston came in from the Tintic country with his family Saturday. W. H. J. Dotson returned early in the week from a visit of ten days in Salt Lake. John Monson went to Price early in the week. William and Ephraim Madsen came home from Idaho this week. They have been in that since last fall. Frank McLaughlin is spending the week in Sevier county. John H. Seelye is in Castle valley this week on business. An even dozen men and boys from Spring City returned this week from Castle Gate. The went to the great coal mining camp some days ago, but conditions there were not to their liking and they returned without trying the work. Jos. Madsen went into Salt Lake early in the week. He will probably remain. Geo. Brough of Spring City has gone to Bear River. C. C. Snydgaard has gone to Scofield, where he will probably remain. Albert Thompson is in Salt Lake City this week on business connected with the local soda water factory of which he is now manager. Peter Johnson of Huntington, Emery county, spent a few days of this week in Mt. Pleasant visiting friends and relatives. Mrs. E. Kofford is down from her home in Provo visiting relatives and friends in her former home. Harry Halverson of Gunnison spent a few days in this city early in the week. He will spend the summer. Mayor Bergman is confined to his home by a slight attack of illness. The Twentieth Century club was entertained Thursday by Mrs. W. D. Candland. John Fowis returned to Carbon county this week after a short stay here. C. E. Coanstrom has gone to Rexburg, Idaho, where he will remain if conditions are found to be satisfactory. The Indian war veterans of Moroni celebrated their annual reunion Wednesday by the following programme of exercises: "Music by Martial Band," assembly at tabernacle; song, "When the Indian War Boys Assemble," by the assembly; prayer; song, "When the Angel Calls the Roll," by the veterans; roll-call; "Speech of Welcome," Captain M. Monson; "Black Hawk War Times," Comrade Joseph Jolley; music by the band; speeches by Fred R. Lamb and Henry D. Ross; quartette, "Robin Hood," by Comrade Dyke and company; speech, C. J. Christensen; music, band; "War Time Reminiscences," by Joseph Wise; speech, Bishop Bradley; song, "Hard Times," by the veterans; benediction. BINGHAM. Mrs. Michael Cavanaugh of Salt Lake, who has been in camp visiting with her husband, returned to the city the first of the week. Charlie Roper was a visitor to the city the first of the week. P. J. Sindar and family, who have been visiting relatives and friends in St. Paul, Minn., have returned. Mrs. Oliver Roberts left Sunday for Sandy, called there by the death of her sister, Mrs. C. E. Adderly, who was on the outgoing train Sunday. Carl and Joe Harmon were Salt Lake visitors this week. Miss Ruth Miller, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Woodring, returned the first of the week to her home in Salt Lake. Mrs. Warren was in Salt Lake City this week. Mrs. Woodring returned Monday from Salt Lake. The card party, given Tuesday evening by Ruth Rebecca No. 7, was a very pleasant affair socially. Prizes were won by Mrs. Gabrielson, Miss Walker, Mr. Bert McKee and Mr. Jack Bryant. Mrs. Mary Roberts and Young Minnette consolation. Mrs. Harry Koe of Highland Bay was a visitor to the city Wednesday. A. Anderson has returned from his short sojourn to the city. A. Arden was in Salt Lake for a couple of days on business. Robert Elliott returned the first of the week from the city. Mrs. Craig of Highland Bay was a visitor to the city Wednesday. The Women's Unity club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. M. H. Hargraves. A very pleasant afternoon was spent with the author, Oliver Wendell Holmes. The club will meet next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Adaline Scoville. The Bingham Whist club was entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Will Strickley. Prizes were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Adderly. Mrs. Quinn and Mr. Will Strickley winning consolation. The following were: Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Dunn, Judge and Mrs. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Herrick, Mr. and Mrs. V. Zion, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Adderly, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley, Mrs. V. Clark, Mrs. Fred West, Dr. Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Will Strickley, J. C. Swan and son, Bert, left Tuesday for Lewiston, Idaho. Mr. Swan expects to remove his family there in a few months. James Start was a visitor to the capital Monday. Bill Fortson returned Thursday from a short trip in the city. Mrs. and Mrs. Dunsmore returned Tuesday from Ogden, where they have been visiting relatives and friends for the past week. A very pleasant young peoples' party was that given Wednesday evening at the club. (Continued on Page 7, Section 2.)

Entered Spring of New Easter Merchandise. THIS Sale should manifest itself as being of the greatest importance to the women of Salt Lake, as each department is superbly equipped with new Easter suggestions. The new fashions and materials are here in infinite variety and ready for your choosing. Never before have we prepared for the Easter season with such a rare collection of beautiful fabrics, wearing apparel and accessories for women. At such a time as this it is fortunate for you beyond measure that we are forced to turn newest merchandise into cash to meet certain obligations, for it enables you to lay in your spring and summer wants here at tremendous savings.

Special Cut in New DRESS GOODS. $1.25 Imported French Voiles, 85c. NEW SPRING HOSIERY AT CUT PRICES. Ladies' new cotton hose, 15c 10c. Children's heavy ribbed cotton hose, double heel, 40c and knee, absolutely stainless, 3c grade, 15c. Ladies' fine cotton hose, high spliced heel and toe, silk finish, 20c 15c. 35c ladies' extra fine cotton hose, double sole and high spliced heel, cut to 25c. 35c misses' fine ribbed hose, sizes 35 to 40, only made of 3 thread combed Egyptian yarn, only 25c. DRY GOODS STORE 222-224 MAIN ST.

The Latest Silk Novelties. THE DISPLAY OF SILKS FOR SHIRT WAIST SUITS COMPRISES ALL THE SEASON'S NOVELTIES, MANY OF THEM TO BE FOUND NOWHERE ELSE. THE NEW BROWNS AND BLUES, THE NEWEST PONGEES AND THE SCARLET GUNNETT SILKS ARE FULLY REPRESENTED IN ALL SHADES AND GRADES.

THE WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH COMPANY. 23,000 OFFICES IN AMERICA. INCORPORATED. CABLE SERVICE TO ALL THE WORLD. RECEIVED AT 159 Main Street, Salt Lake City, Utah. 16 d g wy 20 paid.

German Indigo Prints 39c. Satin Striped 60c All Wool Challies 39c. New Dress Percales. Special Forced Sale Prices on New Undermuslins.

Odd Sample Lace Curtains. About 75 sample pairs of lace curtains, only one pair of a kind, including Nottingham, Brussels, Irish Point, fluted Muslin and Ruffled Net. Priced from, per pair— 45c and up.

Here Are 4 Fascinating Models in New Ladies' and Misses' SUITS FOR EASTER. FOR THIS EASTER SHOWING YOU MAY REST ASSURED THAT WE HAVE COLLECTED TOGETHER AN ARRAY OF CLEVER STYLES AND NOVELTIES AS IT IS POSSIBLE TO OBTAIN, AND IF YOU TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS FORCED SALE YOU WILL BE THE SAVER OF MANY DOLLARS.

1000 New Spring Shirt Waists PLACED ON SALE THIS WEEK. MONDAY WE WILL INAUGURATE A SALE OF NEW SPRING WAISTS AT PRICES THAT BARELY EXCEED THE REASONABLE COST OF THE FABRICS. ECONOMICALLY INCLINED SHOPPERS WILL TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS GREAT EVENT AND THE REWARD WILL BE SURPRISING.

New Eton Coat Suits. $9.50. New Model Military and Eton Suits. $14.95. These are of fine Venetians, chevrons or tweed mixtures, fancy lined, decorated jackets in styles that are among the more popular of the opening season. Special forced sale price—

Handsome Dress and Walking Skirts for Spring. OUR NEW SKIRT MODELS SHOWING THE CORRECT NEW FULL SHAPES, ARE BEAUTIFUL TO BEHOLD, EXTREMELY STYLISH AND PRICED IN THIS SALE TO SUIT THE MOST ECONOMICALLY INCLINED AND MOST CRITICAL SHOPPERS.

Walking Skirts $2.25. Dress Skirts $5.95. Beautiful New Pezestienne Skirts. $7.50. Women's Fine Dress Skirts $11.00. Made of voile, flaring style, handsomely trimmed with taffeta, straps and wood fibre braid. Forced sale price.

New Style Cape Eton Suits. $20.00. Large variety of styles in mannish tuxedo, English novelties and broad-bottomed, Eton or fitted short coats and newest pleated skirts. Special forced sale price—

New Suits, an Almost Endless Variety. $25.00. All the very newest cloths are included in these very handsome suits. The colorings are very rich, some made of drop. Special forced sale price—

Remnants of Table Linens 45c to $4.25. ODD HALF DOZEN NAPKINS. 30c to $1.75. Dozens of broken packages of napkins to be cleaned out. The worth is $1.35 to $5.00; in this sale—

Perfect in every detail was the informal reception, given Wednesday afternoon in celebration of the seventh anniversary of the Utah Savings and Loan Bank. The club colors, heliotrope and cream, were charmingly carried out in the decoration as they were also in the dainty and delicious refreshments. Persons of curiosity, smile and violet in abundance caught here and there with the many colored candles, made the scene one of beauty, while the violets and sweet scented flowers made the air fragrant with their sweet perfume. The lunch bowl was graciously presided over by Miss Lou Bachman, while officers and members of the club acted as reception committee. About one hundred and seventy-five guests were entertained, among whom were many club members of Springville. Mrs. E. A. Wedgwood, a charter member of the club, was an honored guest. A very successful surprise was given Miss Lydia Knudsen, the home of her parents, 38 South First West street, Friday evening. About thirty-five of her friends, with baskets laden with eatables,